Dream: Hot "Fran"-like Russian

There is much smoking pot in this dream...
I make great amount, "we are in master bedroom on 21 Bradley Ave."

I complain that I won't get a second putt, but the guy brings out another putt - and I am relieved. The female is hot - and obviously her father has a marijuana factory underground. I see the factory.

I see Baron Van Heutrich - the old English sheepdog from my youth. I look into his eyes.

continued... I am in a stadium - two large officers question me when I come out from under behind a rock from a secret passageway (stunned). They question me, "Why don't you like Football?"
Are you some kind of pussy?
Wherever. I keep walking, offended.

Then there is a shark house in the flooded underground marijuana factory.
I see Shandana and Shandra Heutrich and my dad. I ask Shandra Heutrich if he minds my not presecuting, thereby ending the Heutrich line. I cry.

See, I hope her leaving me into a frenzy backfires and I leave her masterbating to images of me mounting her.

Yes, poor Nat. will feel me in my absence if these poems can unleash primal magic.

hand delivered to Black Elk's Club in the Autumn of 2002?

Respected Elders and Representatives of the Black Community:

The current depression in our economy combined with the inevitable depletion of fossil fuels on the horizon offers an opportunity for more and more people to reflect upon the nature of their daily way of life.

"African American" communities throughout the nation and African People dispersed in various areas around the planet will no doubt play an important role in whatever transition the human species will endure.

As your People have been forced in response to abusive treatment by the dominating culture to form tight societies within the empires, you have gained more appreciation than "main stream citizens" a sense of urgency for a full fledged reinterpretation of the history of Western Civilization and the processes of imperial colonization of Natural People by a multinational empire that seems dedicated to expansion with no consciousness of the expansive effects on the environments it destroys, including air, water, cultures, and people themselves.

I respect that the Black communities face many obstacles peculiar to the "Black Experience". Moreover, the Native American Experience and their perspective put down in words in the following position papers that were presented to the United Nations in the autumn of 1977 offer a basic call to consciousness to all Peoples of Earth. This consciousness challenges the way of life that has mystified and enslaved the Peoples of the Earth.

Re-education is vital. With Native Peoples' unique perspective of the history of "Western Civilization", we might recognize a powerful and progressive awareness of the nature of our lives, where we come from, and what has happened to us along the way.

Their consciousness envisions us all as Natural People that have been colonized and assimilated into the dominant ~~entire~~ corporate culture. Current multinationals can be traced back to the ruling classes of Kings and Popes oppression of peasantry.

The peasants throughout history have been confused and controlled by the very same forces that threaten all life on this planet.

I present these papers to you with the simple hope that you might incorporate this consciousness into your own struggles for a critical analysis of the dominant culture leading to a massive re-education campaign with "ultra modern and futuristic manifestations. With Great Respect, Mientras que esto me entristece, quisiera que tu supiera que repentinamente paro el venir por el 6-12 y entonces la vuelta encontrarle ningún trabajo más largo allí, yo le faltará en un nivel muy profundo, en un más profundo llano que lengua, cultura, o la edad (nunca que tiene una oportunidad de conocerle mejor debido a los obstáculos mencionados).

¡pero, aguantaré estos disturbios con alegría mientras que duran!

"Now see, Nati, I am an honest man very intimate with his own soul. Life is mysterious, and I trust my intuition. I know I like you very much. I need no counselling on the subject of my attraction to you."

Tu ve, Nati, yo es un hombre honesto muy íntimo con su propia alma.

La vida es misteriosa, y confío en mi intuición. Me conozco tengo gusto de tu mucho. No necesito ningún asesoramiento a propósito de mi atracción a tu.

"I expect to feel foolish, but, in the end, aren't we all just doing the best we can to make sense of our inner experiences, the ones we cannot transform into words or sounds?"

Espero sentirme absurdo; ¿pero, en el extremo, no sea nosotros todos apenas que hacen el mejor nosotros lata para tener sentido de nuestras experiencias internas, las que no podemos transformar en palabras o sonidos?

"Must I respect common sense, or am I capable of thinking for myself?"

¿Debo respetar sentido común, o soy capaz del pensamiento para me?

"Rather than do as most people do (ignore their feelings) I am exposing my feelings to you now."

Más bien que haga como lo hace la mayoría de la gente (no hago caso de las sensaciones internas), yo ahora están exponiendo mis sensaciones a tu.

Pundit = a person who knows alot about a particular subject and who expresses ideas publicly

What did the gods have in mind when they made the universe? What is our role. These things our mythology tells us.

(Mythology = "how any given culture explains reality")

A People can no more function without mythology than a body can function without a nervous system.

It is the organizing principle of all our activities. It explains to us the meaning of all we do.

Circumstances may render a culture's mythology meaningless, shattering its very Chaos enures.

~ Daniel Quinn notes ~

People lose the will to live, become listless, become violent, become suicidal, take to drink, drugs, and crime, The MATRIX that once held all in place is now shattered, and laws, customs, and institutions fall into DISUSE and DISRESPECT, especially among the young, who see that they elders can no longer make sense of their own LAWS, CUSTOMS, and INSTITUTIONS.

People who have been decapitated in their manner can be found all over the United States, Africa, South America, New Guinea, Australia - whatever - Aboriginal peoples have been crushed under the wheels of our culture.

In the 1950's, people of our culture still believed that exploiting the world was our god-given right.

Our way of life, exploitation Empire, was not built into Homo habilis or when Homo habilis became Homo erectus or when Homo erectus became Homo sapiens. The vision of Empire was born when our Toxic Culture was born 10,000 years ago. This was the MANIFESTO of our revolution to be carried out to every corner of The Earth.

"Oh, oh, People of the Earth,

Listen to ^{my} warning, the prophet,

He said,

Soon the cold of Night will fall

You'll be turning for to come running for to come

Out of the rain — oh — Fear for your life!

Let not all your treasures — you. Oh — Fear for your life!

Perceive you not, the fires of Hell will take you, should death await you."

This manifesto was embraced by the builders of the Pyramids and those who labored to build the Great Wall of China.

even embraced by the marauders who decimated the bones of the Roman Empire — the Huns, the Vikings, the Arabs, the Avars

B → The manifesto about outgiving the world to the will of 'another culture' was taken for granted by the intellectual founders of the modern age: Hume, Rousseau...

It was not even doubted by Luddite gangs who smashed up factories in the Midlands and NORTH OF ENGLAND. It was not doubted by the authors of The Communist Manifesto, nor by the organizers of the labor movement. It was not even doubted by the scores of jobless during the Great Depression.

It wasn't doubted by the scores of millions who fought World War II or by the leaders who sent them to fight.

It wasn't doubted by the hundreds of thousands who labored in an industry of death created to KILL HUMANITY OF

"MONGREL RACES".

It wasn't doubted by the hardworking accountants and engineers who exerted their best skills

To rain terror down on the cities of Germany.

What is "IT" again they never doubted and always took for granted?

The world was made for Man, and Man was made to conquer and rule it.

It is not doubted by those who dream of a coming utopia where people would rest and all labor would be performed by robots, where atomic power would be limitless and free, where poverty, hunger, and crime would be obsolete.

But, this Manifesto is doubted now.

Let us quote directly from Daniel Quinn

B₂₈₁ P₂:

"... almost everywhere in our culture, in all walks of life, among the young and the old, but especially among the young, for whom the dream of a glittering future in which life will become ever sweeter and sweeter and sweeter, decade after decade, century after century, has been exploded and is meaningless.

You children know better.

They know better because you know better.

Only our politicians still insist that the world was made for Man, and Man was made to conquer and rule it.

It is their profession (they get paid to do it) to affirm and proclaim the manifest destiny of our revolution.

If they want to hold onto their jobs, they must assure us with absolute conviction that a glorious future lies ahead for us — provided we march forward with the hammer of conquest and rule.

They reassure us of this, and then they wonder why power and power collapse of values began in the 1960's?

164 19:00 The fable is good, but I do not want to put it. I will refer to it as The Fable of ^{about} Blessing and overpopulation p 289-293 of B.

How will the population as a whole respond? It does not matter in the least how individuals respond. We are variables whose behavior becomes insignificant in the larger system.

Quinn's vision is frank.

Shall I get into NEGATIVE FEEDBACK versus POSITIVE FEEDBACK?

All energy = Food energy?

Among life-forms on the surface of our planet, all food energy originates in the green plants and nowhere else.

Life on this planet is about feeding and being fed upon;

In systems terms, the dynamic of population growth and decline in the biological community is a negative feedback system.

If you let x represent a particular species in an area, and let y represent the food base, as x increases, y decreases, but as y decreases, x decreases, until x decreases enough then y increases again - which increases x .

Food populations and predator populations control each other. The natural community provides a perfect model of NEGATIVE FEEDBACK. This is like the thermostat that controls the furnace.

"TOO COLD" triggers furnace into ON state.

"TOO HOT" triggers furnace into OFF state.

Ecology is about Food and that the flow of all populations is a function of food availability.

Ecology is a simple mathematics grounded in a mathematical function where x (input) is food availability and $F(x) =$ "the elt and flow of a population feeding on x ".

as x increases, species y_x increases, where y feeds upon food x .

As x decreases, y_x decreases.

Always and invariably.

Semper et ubique. Ever and always.

Without exception. Never otherwise.

More food \rightarrow growth of population ^[more fucking] less food \rightarrow decline of population ^[less fucking]

As Quinn (B) says "There is no species that dwindles in the midst of abundance, no species that thrives on nothing."

How to defeat the system's controls

A lingo at the origin of our population control explosion, 190,000 years with negative feedback, and we go from a few thousand to 10 million. About 10,000 y.a. we began to grow rapidly. We, our culture, found a way to defeat the negative feedback controls of the natural community.

We had become FOOD PRODUCERS - agriculturalists. We found a way to increase food availability at will. The ability to make food available is the "Blessing" on which our civilization is founded. Its heedlessness makes it very dangerous and dangerously addictive. "at will" is the operative expression Population expansion ^{among} agriculturalists was followed by territorial expansion among agriculturalists.

More food \rightarrow more population \rightarrow more land \rightarrow more food-base.

This is POSITIVE FEEDBACK, in systems terminology.

When thermostat reads "TOO HOT", the thermostat turns the furnace ON (producing more food) instead of OFF (decrease in reproduction).

Negative feedback checks an increasing effect. Positive feedback reinforces an increasing effect.

Positive feedback is what we see at work in the agricultural revolution of ours.

More food \rightarrow more people

More people \rightarrow more food

Positive feedback = bad stuff, dangerous stuff
The laws of ecology predict this.

"Intensification of production of food to feed an increased population invariably leads to a still greater increase in population."

What the masters of Europe did, beginning in the 16th century, was precisely to expand the walls of their cage to accommodate an increased population - into The New World, Australia, Melanesia, and Africa.

Even though countries like Germany with a high standard of living have a growth rate near zero or even below zero, and countries with a low standard of living (Third World) are the ones that account for all the growth, when our population system is assessed as a whole - on a global scale, rather than country by country - there is no doubt whatever that, as a whole, our population is increasing CATASTROPHICALLY.

By 2040, there may be 12 BILLION of us on this planet.

Our lifestyle will force a limit on us.

The only way the system of positive feedback can take care of this overpopulation problem with the boundaries and constraints being ecological and biological, is to collapse.

THE SYSTEM WILL COLLAPSE.

When $x \rightarrow \infty$, $f(x) \rightarrow \infty$
This mathematics has a constant,
Earth will not sustain this.

B calls The Great Forgetting the angel dust of our culture.

The Great Forgetting blinds us to our BIOLOGICAL LIMITATIONS and VULNERABILITY.

Is it too late for humankind to save itself? Hopelessness is understandable because they mistake the workings of addiction for human nature itself.

There is time for us to stop taking the drug (THE GREAT FORGETTING) and to stop feeding it (TEACHING IT) to our children. There is time for us to begin The Great Remembering.

The Great Forgetting fosters the delusion that the world was empty of humans until the people of our culture made their appearance just ~~over~~ a few thousand years ago (10,000).

I propose IN is Semitic. \leftarrow I suspect TAK = Semites

Corollary of this delusion:

Our culture is first and original human culture AND our culture is the single culture that God intended for all humankind.

Those delusions remain in place globally - East & West, twins of a common birth.

Even through the true and well-known story of human origins gives them NO SUPPORT AT ALL.

BENEFITS of communal life :
farming villages grew into towns;
towns grew into cities;
cities grew into kingdoms;
kingdoms grew into empires.
All was clear, but not smooth.
The key social instrument had yet to be invented: law.

The earliest written code of law,
the Code of Hammurabi, dates only to about 2100 B.C.E. (^{before} ~~Christian Era~~).
What nearly happened in the world about 10,000 years ago?

Members of Homo sapiens, a species of primate in the animal kingdom, moved outward from their African birthplace for more than 100,000 years and had reached every corner of the globe.

By 10,000 years ago, the Near East, Europe, Asia, Australia, and the New World had all been occupied by modern humans for at least 20,000 years.

Far from being empty, the Near East was among the most densely populated areas of the world - populated by tribal peoples, such as were found everywhere in the world at that time and such as are found still today where they have been allowed to survive.

So, the founders of our toxic culture were ~~are~~ ^a tribal people surrounded by many tribal ~~cultures~~ peoples.

The names of the tribes inhabiting the relevant area at this time will never be known to us. The name of the tribe in which our own quirky approach to life was born is similarly unknown. Let us call the tribe Tak (since their descendants have come to be called TAKERS).

There certainly existed such a people as the Tak or we would not be here!

The ~~white~~ background of each tribal area is what makes the tribal name stand out.

The only way to tell one tribal people from another is by the solidity & density of its own laws and customs

The cultural boundaries between tribes is impenetrable.

A member of Bak can't become a member of HAK - unthinkable!

Some tribal peoples were hunter-gatherers, some were agriculturalists.

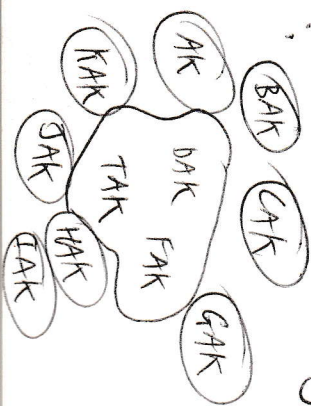

We know the TAK were agriculturalists - though they may not have invented agriculture, they did invent a NEW style of agriculture → TOTALITARISAN style.

The stupendous innovation of the TAK is that everyone should live as they did. This made the TAK unusual.

No other people tried to proselytize their neighbors.

The Aztecs (the ancestors of Mex.) had no interest in spreading their lifestyle to the peoples around them, including those they conquered.

The TAK revolution engulfed its neighbors.

The defining cultural borders of BAK, FAK, and TAK have meaning -

They share a common lifestyle.
Being DAK or FAK is no longer important.

Now all that matters is that DAK and FAK are allied with the TAK.

The original laws and customs of the TAK are no more relevant than any other tribal peoples. The DAK and the FAK have not become TAK. They have just ceased to be DAK and FAK,

Laws and customs of individual tribes continue to fade into irrelevance.

By now, the DAK and the FAK have completely lost their TRIBAL IDENTITIES and the HAK and the KAK will soon join them.

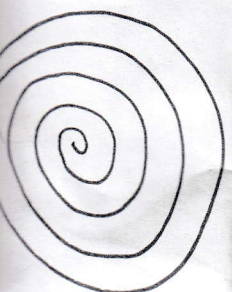

The foundation thinkers of our culture imagined our culture was born in a world empty of law, but it was born in a world full of law, and then proceeded to OBLITERATE it.

Even the law of the original TAK tribe disappeared, rendered by this process as irrelevant as all the rest.

Study the spread of our culture into the Americas, into Australia, into Africa and elsewhere, and you can hardly fail to see the steady

OBLITERATION OF TRIBAL LAW in the path of its advance — and with the obliteration of tribal law, the obliteration of tribal identity.

In tribal life, no one suffers unless everyone suffers. There's no class or group of people who are expected to do the suffering - and no class or group exempt from suffering.

In tribal life there are NO RULERS, elders or chiefs - almost always part time - exert influence rather than power. There is nothing equivalent to a ruling class - or a rich or privileged class.

There is nothing equivalent to a working class - or a poor or underprivileged class,

3 million years of evolutionary shaping lead to TRIBAL LIFE, the social theory PRIMITIVEISM. It was tested. Our culture testing at 10,000 years, will collapse soon.

Our culture obliterated a way of life that lasted 3 million years (tested). Where are we in 10,000 years? The first thing to be destroyed by "contact with Toferville" was the very thing that made tribal life a success:

its social, economic, and political egalitarianism. As soon as our revolution began, the process of division began, between RULERS and RULED, RICH and POOR, POWERFUL and POWERLESS, MASTERS and SLAVES,

The suffering class had arrived, and that class (as it would always be) was the masses. Just a few thousand years separates us from the age of god-kings, when the royal classes lived in mind-boggling splendor and all the rest - THE SUFFERING MASSES - lived like cattle.

01:27 Volumes of the Hex do not include dspce, or X66, the 500 page DIARRHM - and that is where I began writing about Nat', so - The Volumes of The Hex come in when I am in full fledged LOVE-MADNESS with Nat'.
Many, well-several moons later, and I am documenting the real obstacles, walls, constraints, received laws... rules... Reglas?

I will always consider the Quarium (dspe6) [which brought me from Rutgers Comp Sci student in New Brunswick to local anti-hero of hometown Freehold, now mesoville] the appearance of Nat's attraction to me - because she sent me beautiful signals with her eyes; but this will never be known unless there were a confessor by Nat's to me of a secret attraction to Miley occurring in her heart from that time. I felt as though SHE were CALLING TO ME with her eyes.
AT DSP67, it is ALL ABOUT NATIE -

When the Great Forgetting was complete, twisted life had been gone for thousands of years.
No one in the entire civilized world, East or West, remembered a time when perfectly ordinary people - the kind of people who most made up the suffering masses - lived well, and human society was not divided into THOSE WHO ARE EXPECTED TO SUFFER and THOSE WHO ARE EXEMPT FROM SUFFERING.

STORY OF B

Everyone thought this suffering was human nature, the human condition.
We still do, when we do not Remember.
Thinkers began to think the world is an evil place. [Schopenhauer]
They begin to think existence itself is evil. [Schopenhauer]
They begin to think humans are flawed.
They begin to think that humankind is DOOMED, DAMNED even,

They began to think that someone needed to SAVE US. None of these ideas sprang from the ~~the~~ failed life.

These sprung from people living awkward, empty lives. You can make people live like cattle, but you can't make them think they are living well,

You can render them powerless, but you can't render them dreamless. The suffering masses knew they were suffering — knew something was desperately wrong — knew they needed something. And what they needed was SALVATION.

The ORIGIN and CAUSE of human suffering — and the means of ending it — became the first great intellectual and spiritual preoccupation of our culture, beginning about 4,000 years ago: 2000 B.C.E.

For 3,000 years, major religions developed:

The religions of OUR CULTURE:

Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism,

[Christianity and Islam].

Each with its own theory, but with a central single vision:

Whether it is release from the endless round of death and rebirth or blissful union with God in heaven, salvation is the highest goal of human life, beyond wealth, happiness, honor, or fame — and each of us utterly alone in the universe with it.

Upon salvation is the most selfish thing. Upon salvation need not take second place to anything — parenthood, loyalty, honor, king, country, family, NOBIA/NOVIO.

If I ask you to place me above your salvation, you say I ask too much.

So, what does the Antichrist stand for?

ANTICHRIST IS JUST THE LATEST NAME FOR AN ANCIENT FIGURE IN THE RELIGIOUS ~~WORLD~~ LEGENDS OF OUR CULTURE — FAR MORE ANCIENT THAN THE CHRIST TO WHICH THIS NAME MAKES HIM OPPOSED.

Antichrist does not just represent the antithesis of Jesus.

All our salvationist religions have feared the appearance of one who would lead the righteous from the paths of salvation.

The ANTICHRIST is not just the antithesis of Jesus, but also the antithesis of Buddha, of Elijah, of Moses, of Muhammad, of Nanak, of Joseph Smith, of Mahari Ji — antithesis of all SAVIORS and PURVEYORS OF SALVATION in the world.

The Antichrist is actually the ANTISAVIOR.

Accompanying the legend of the Antichrist has been the bizarre and laughable notion that Antisavior's massive global appeal will be his unbridled wickedness.

This shows what low opinion our Salvationist religions have of their members. This is how they despise us that they think we yearn for evil and villainess and corruption and will follow who promises such things.

In defense of the Antichrist, say

"Yes. B is the Antichrist - the ANTISAVIOR even.

B means to steal the hearts of the people away from you so that the world may live, B means to gather the voices of humans all over the planet into one voice, singing,

'The world must live,
the world must live!

We are only one species among billions. The gods don't love us more than they love spiders or bears or whales or water lilies. The age of the Great Forgetting has ended, and all its lies and delusions have been dispelled. Now we remember who we are.

Repeat: Now we remember who we are.
Our kin are not cherubim, seraphim, thrones, principalities, and powers.
Our kin are flies, lemons, snakes, eagles, and badgers.

The blinding we suffered in the Great Forgetting has ended, so we no longer imagine that Man was ill-made.

We no longer imagine that the gods ditched their work when they made us. The gods can make human beings -

We can no longer live as though nothing matters but us. We can no longer believe that suffering was the lot the gods had in mind for us.

We can no longer believe that death is sweet release to our true destiny.

We can no longer yearn for the nothingness of

of nirvana. We can no longer dream of wearing crowns of gold in the royal court of heaven.

You are right to say we are STRAYING FROM THE PATH OF SALVATION. We are straying from that path EXACTLY AS YOU ALWAYS FEARED WE MIGHT.

But listen, we are not straying from the path of salvation for the sake of sin and corruption, as you always imagined we might.

We are straying from the path of salvation for love of the world, as you never once dreamed in a thousand years of dreaming.

John, the evangelist wrote,

"You must not love the world or the things of the world, for those who love the world are strangers to the love of the Father."

Then, just 2 sentences later, he wrote, "Children, the final hour is at hand! You have heard that the Antichrist is coming.

He is not one but many, and when the many of him are among us, you will know the final hour has come."

John knew what he was talking about. He was right to warn his followers against those who love the world. We ARE the ones he was talking about, and this IS the final hour — but it is THEIR final hour, NOT OURS. They have had their day, and this is indeed the final hour of that day.

Now OUR DAY BEGINS.
